

bioMérieux Quality Policy

“The shared goal and responsibility of each bioMérieux employee is to understand customers’ needs, to provide innovative, high medical value products and services that enhance public health worldwide.

We strive to create and maintain a sustainable quality culture, to continuously develop employees and to improve our processes to meet and anticipate customer expectations in an evolving regulatory environment.”